CHINFO MERIT AWARDS PROGRAM

1. Background. The annual CHINFO Merit Awards Program recognizes outstanding achievements in internal media products produced by Navy commands and individuals. The program is coordinated by the Naval Media Center. First-place CHINFO Merit Award entries, with the exception of those in Navy-unique categories, will be forwarded to the Defense Information School for further competition as official Navy entries in the appropriate categories in the Department of Defense (DoD) Thomas Jefferson (TJ) Awards contest.

2. Significant Program Changes. There are four significant category changes as follows:

a. Funded and Civilian Enterprise (CE) Newspapers will compete against one another by format size as advertising in CE Newspapers is not judged.

b. Deletion of Art/Graphics in Support of a Publication category as there now exists the DoD Military Graphic Designer of the Year competition.

c. Familygrams may be entered in either a Newspaper category or the Familygram category, but may not be entered in both.

d. Publication for a Specific Audience category no longer contains newspaper format sub-category since these pubs may now compete in the newspaper categories. The category will remain, but is exclusive to the professional/technical publications in a magazine format such as Surface Warfare, Naval Aviation News and Approach.

3. Entry Dates. Print/broadcast entries must be received no later than 31 January 2003. Judging will be held 10 February through 14 March 2003. Winners will be announced via message and placed on the Naval Media Center website at: www.mediacen.navy.mil on or about 01 April 2003.

4. Categories. A detailed description of each category listed below is contained in enclosures (4) and (5). The following are categories for which CHINFO Merit Awards will be presented:

a. Print Media: Metro Format Newspaper; Tabloid Format Newspaper; Magazine Format Publication; Newsletter Format Publication; News Article; Feature Article; Commentary; Sports Article; Series; Stand-Alone Photograph; Photojournalism; Contribution by a Contractor/Stringer (Writer); Contribution by a Contractor/Stringer (Photographer); Outstanding Flagship Writer; Web-based Publication; Outstanding New Writer; Department of Navy Print Journalist of the Year; Familygram; Cruisebook; Internal Publication for a Specific Audience.

b. Broadcast Media: Radio Entertainment Program; Radio Spot Production; Radio Report; Radio Newscast; Radio Information Program; TV Information Program; TV Spot Production; TV Report; TV Feature Report; Local TV Newscast; Regional TV Newscast; Command Information Campaign; Department of Navy Broadcast Journalist of the Year; Outstanding Flagship Television Program; SITE TV Newscast; SITE TV Spot Production; SITE Open.

5. Eligibility

a. All DoN active duty, reservists and civilian personnel are eligible to compete. Civilian Enterprise (CE) newspaper contractor personnel as well as civilian stringers for a Navy-Funded or CE publication may compete only in the Contribution by a Contractor/Stringer (Writer) and (Photographer) categories.

b. Department-level publications and professional or technical publications such as Naval Aviation News, Surface Warfare, Navy Recruiter, Fathom, Approach and Civil Engineer may compete only in Navy-unique category U, Internal Publication for a Specific Audience.

c. Department of Navy personnel assigned to the Office of the Secretary of Defense or its elements and Stars and Stripes newspapers are ineligible.

d. Navy staff members of unified command publications, with the exception of those assigned to Stars and Stripes, may enter the individual print categories. If the Unified Command newspaper is funded or sponsored by a Navy command, its publication may be entered in the appropriate publication category.

e. DoN personnel assigned to All Hands Magazine may compete only in print Category O, Outstanding Flagship Writer and Category R, Department of Navy Print Journalist of the Year.

f. DoN personnel assigned to Navy/Marine Corps News may enter broadcast Category M, Department of Navy Broadcast Journalist of the Year and not more than four additional categories.

g. All entries must have been published/aired during calendar year, 1 January 2002 through 31 December 2002.

h. In the print categories, entry tearsheets from publications such as Navy Times, The Washington Post or Stars and Stripes are ineligible. Entry examples may only come from official or authorized Navy publications.

i. The following media are not eligible to enter the awards program: civilian enterprise base guides and directories, publications and productions funded by nonappropriated funds; educational and training films and commercially produced, contracted and mixed productions, e.g., part in-house and part commercial contract productions.

6. Entries

a. Entries must be authorized products prepared for internal information purposes and produced, published or broadcast during the current contest year. Entries will not be returned. Entries must be received at the Naval Media Center no later than 31 January 2003. Late or incomplete entries will be disqualified.

b. All entries must contribute to the internal information objectives of the Navy and meet the highest standards of production, execution and professional excellence. Products should convey information that helps Department of Navy personnel succeed in their jobs and missions, or information that conveys to military people and their families the rules and survival tools needed to succeed personally in the Department of Navy.

c. No single entry may be submitted in more than one category, except that entries to other categories may be submitted as part of the broader requirements for entry in the DON Print and Broadcast Journalists of the Year and Command Information Campaign categories.

d. In the writing, photography, contribution by contractor/stringer categories, individuals are limited to one entry per category but may enter all categories for which they are eligible. (For example, JO3 Mary Doe may enter, Feature Article, News Article, Photojournalism, etc., but she may only enter each of those categories once.) Units may enter unit categories once. No entries may be submitted in more than one category with the exception of those stated in paragraph c.

e. Contact Mr. J. D. Leipold, Naval Media Center, DSN 288-3776, commercial (202) 433-3776 or email leipold@mediacen.navy.mil with general questions concerning print categories.

f. Contact Mr. Jeff Valdez, Naval Media Center, DSN 288-4714, commercial (202) 433-4714 or e-mail valdez@mediacen.navy.mil with questions concerning broadcast categories.

7. Judging. A team of journalists, photographers, broadcasters and public affairs specialists will be selected by Naval Media Center to serve as judges for the CHINFO Merit Awards. Entries will be judged on professional excellence, originality, appeal to target audience and support of DoD and DoN internal information themes and objectives.

a. Print Media judges will adhere to the following standards and criteria:

(1) Judges may select a first, second, third and honorable mention in each category or if quality is less than exceptional make no award.

(2) Publications will be judged on the following elements: editorial mix, quality of writing, layout/design, graphics and photos, editing and reader feedback. Individual writing entries will be judged on the following general elements: originality, clarity, accuracy, organization, grammar and spelling.

(3) Photography entries will be judged on the following general elements: originality, technical elements, composition, impact and how well the photography tells a story or supports a story or theme.

b. Broadcast Media judges will adhere to the following standards and criteria, plus an extra criteria for the Command Information Campaign and Broadcast Journalist of the Year categories:

Enclosure (1)

(1) Internal Information/Value to Viewer - Does the information apply to the audience? Is the message important for the audience to hear? Messages can range from facility operating hours to a commanding officer's issue or policy he or she wishes to convey to his or her community.

(2) Script/Message Effectiveness - How well is it written? Is the message clear?

(3) Technical Quality - Is there a good audio mix, quality of video, levels, lighting and editing?

(4) Voice/Diction/Camera Presence - How well does the announcer/newscaster interpret the script and clearly enunciate? How well do the announcers present themselves?

(5) Creativity - Is the presentation original? How effectively do the various elements work together?

(6) Diversity (Categories L and M) - Does the individual nominated for Broadcast Journalist of the Year have the ability to perform well in all aspects of broadcasting (i.e., writing, editing, announcing, producing, directing, etc.?) Does the nomination package for Command Information Campaign include a variety of products for the campaign?

8. Awards

a. By type, the following categories of awards are established: individual and unit.

(1) First Place winners in each category will receive a Letter of Commendation and certificate of merit from the CHINFO.

(2) Second, Third and Honorable Mention winners in each category will receive a Letter of Commendation from Commanding Officer, Naval Media Center and certificate of merit from the CHINFO.

b. While there is no arbitrary limit placed on the number of individuals who may be listed as contributors to a unit entry, commands should limit the submission to those who significantly contributed to the product.

9. Mailing Procedures

a. Mail print and broadcast entries to:

CHINFO Merit Awards Program
Naval Media Center
2713 Mitscher Road SW
Anacostia Annex DC 20373-5819

b. Please use a carrier such as Federal Express, Airborne Express or United Parcel Service. Check packages before mailing. Each year, entries are disqualified because enclosures were forgotten. Overseas commands should allow time for mail to reach the Washington, D.C. area. Entries must reach Naval Media Center by 31 January 2003. Entries received after the deadline will be disqualified.
